

Free Family Literacy Program

You decide what to study for: Work, Home, or School

B.C. Driver's manual; G.E.D. or high school courses; better reading comprehension; math for home or work; work-related writing or courses; on-line courses; English-as-a Second Language; or any other goal you choose

A teacher is available to help adults with their studies

Free childcare on-site for 0 to 6 yrs

Register by calling 250-785-2110 or email info@fsjliteracy.ca

Start any time* between Sept 2013 - April 2014

9:30 am – 12:00 pm Tuesday and Thursday

Located at Ridgeview Lanes, 8424 - 92 Ave

"This project is made possible through funding from the Government of Canada and the Province of British Columbia."

Fort St. John Rotary

United Way
Northern British Columbia
Helping each other... the northern way.
unitedwaynbc.ca

Thank you to our partner North Peace Community Resources Society

*Depending upon number of openings available