

Go Outside

- go outside in all seasons
- explore and investigate
- be active
- have structured and unstructured play time
- talk about what you see/hear/smell/feel

Why? This allows children to be active and to calm their brains, which helps children to manage their emotions and to concentrate more easily.